

Sun Valley Senior Recognized as Best of the Class

Senior Jesse Idun has been selected to represent Sun Valley High School as Best of the Class, a program sponsored by 6ABC. Best of the Class is an annual salute to excellence honoring students achieving at the highest level. Sun Valley utilizes student Grade Point Average (GPA) as the criteria for choosing their representative.

Jesse is the current president of the National Honor Society, a member of the Spanish National Honor Society, and the Committee of 2011. He participates in Knowledge Masters, concert and jazz band, soccer, cross country, and boys track & field. Jesse has been accepted to Penn State University, Villanova University, and the University of Michigan. He plans to major in business and economics.

“Jesse Idun is a student who embodies the leaders of the future,” stated Sun Valley Principal Mr. Pete Donaghy.

Jesse, along with 250 high school seniors from Pennsylvania, southern New Jersey, and Delaware, will assemble at Drexel University on April 4 for the taping of 6ABC’s Best of the Class 2011, hosted by Action News on-air personalities. Each student’s video portrait will be featured in a three minute commercial spot, which will air on Saturday evenings this spring. 6ABC has been honoring the hard work and determination of students from each graduating class across our area with Best of the Class recognition for the past 28 years.
