Contest Corner on the newsletter

Essay Contests- "Daughters of the Revolution", "Veterans Day Essay", and "Nature Essay"

Student Led Virtual Conferences- 11/24 and 11/25. Sign up for conferences on Sign up Genius until next Wednesday night, 11/11. This Friday a video will be posted of a 6th grade student led conference from last year.

Barksdale School Pictures- Monday, 11/9 and Tuesday, 11/10 for Hybrid students. There was a link in the last Northley newsletter. Makeups are in December for virtual students. Barksdale's COVID guidelines are listed on their website. Students take masks off for pictures then put them right back on.

-Quarterlies at the end of the marking period to see what students need to improve on.

-Mr. Alutius likes seeing students in person, and teachers and staff are adjusting to Hybrid. Students have been great at wearing masks!

- Teacher Representative Report- Mrs. Armbruster was not present at the meeting.

- Committee updates:
 - 8th Grade Winter Alternate Event – Gina Leiby/Annemarie Haggerty-
 - -Gina Leiby-8th Grade formals- Not sure what they can do because of COVID restrictions. Caryn Rhoads said they maybe can do something in the Spring outside, when the weather is nicer.
 - -Gina Leiby suggested doing a holiday gift for all of the 8th graders instead of a dance.
- 1. Fundraising – Amy Wothers-Market Day
 - Membership - Open
 - Hospitality- Open
 - Digital- Andrea Griffith

Will advertise for Market Day on FB

Another way to push for PTL Dues? Maybe teachers can email parents to pay dues.

- New Business

-Andrea- Asked what we can do for Teachers and staff right now. Mr. Alutius said to wait right now on giving staff gifts for the holidays.

-2020/2021 Budget Proposal

- End the meeting
