My Child Has ADHD, Now What?

Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD) is a neurodevelopmental disorder described as a “persistent” or on-going pattern of inattention and/or hyperactivity - impulsivity that gets in the way of daily life or typical development. This parent workshop will focus on analyzing deficits and gifts of ADHD, as well as providing parents with practical strategies to implement across all environments with their children. The targeted audience of this session is for parents of newly diagnosed children and parents that want to have a better understanding ADHD.

To register for this session, contact Bria Hoey 610-938-9000 ext. 2102 or send an email to bhoey@dciu.org
